Belated Happy New Year ... and welcome to our 70th issue! For those who don't know us very well, Friends of Cherry Hinton Brook was founded in 2009, and our first newsletter came out in August that year. We owe a big thank you to David Brooks, the first editor, and now Monica Frisch, for their dedication to producing such a regular source of Brook-related news.

Autumn litter pick

Enough volunteers attended the autumn litter pick last October to have four small groups working different sections of the Brook, enabling us to maintain social distancing. This worked well and within two hours the Brook from Sainsbury's to Cherry Hinton Hall had been cleared, with several bags of rubbish left for the council to remove.

As always the bulk of the litter was in the stretch alongside Sainsbury's, mainly near the distribution centre, where it is blown into the Brook, making it more of a challenge for the volunteers. We welcome volunteers for each litter pick and always need
